

Employment Opportunity - Contract Residential Cleaner

Who is Home Spritz

Home Spritz is a web-based home cleaning company. We are distinctive in terms of customer service, payment, and marketing. We provide a platform where you list yourself and get hired by homeowners as a freelancing cleaner. Our vision is to value both cleaners and homeowners equally. We encourage you, cleaners, to have direct communication with the home owners to increase client satisfaction and help build better relationships, which helps you make more money. Our cleaners make more money than industry average and we work to help you earn more. We provide customized support for each of you in marketing, developing a profile, and work performance support.

Please note this is not a full-time employment, but a contract position as a residential cleaner. The hours are not guaranteed.

Who Are We Looking For?

We are looking for a caring, detail-oriented, and high-quality cleaners to join our team as residential cleaning contractors. Our successful cleaner will be able to discuss a home owner's needs before stepping foot in the door and the home owner will feel a personalized touch when the cleaning is finished. Cleanings include vacuum, mopping, dusting, scrubbing, etc. Trust, reliability, and responsiveness are traits we look for and our customers want to see. You can choose your availability of time or geographical areas of the city with your convenience and your income would increase as your rating improves. We want you to focus on excellent cleaning and managing the relationship with the homeowners. We help you manage payments, reviews, customer service, and marketing.
